As we continue to celebrate the milestone 95th anniversary of QT we are reminded of the central place it holds in our community. QT has been shaping futures since 1928, most notably through our impact on the ACT economy, supplying the ACT workforce with essential skills. The Board met on 1 November to start discussions on the strategic vision of QT and looks forward to shaping our future focus with QT staff and our stakeholders,

(VET) sector. CIT won , while CIT teachers, students and industry partners also took out individual and collaborative awards:

- •
- •
- •
- •

The Board thanks QT staff for their continued efforts noting that QT staff remain our greatest asset and are critical to the ongoing success of QT in building the skills necessary for the ACT community.

The Board notes the uncertainty for staff as the ŒO remains on leave to ensure procedural fairness while the Integrity Commission Investigation is continuing. The Board thanks Ms Robertson for continuing on at CIT as Interim ŒO while the ŒO remains on leave.